STATISTICAL REVIEW

Statistical totals for the domestic Conferences at the time of unification, for the last year of each of the three quadrenniums since, and for 1953 and 1954. This summary, taken from the Secretary's report and the Statistician's and Treasurer's report of each Annual Conference, is presented for the purpose of giving certain information not appearing in the Condensed Tables also received from those Conferences. Complete report for 1940 not available.

OPINIONS AND DECISIONS

JUDICIAL COUNCIL
of
THE METHODIST CHURCH

Decision No. 98

Re: Ruling of Bishop Roy H. Short Regarding the Legality of the "Conference Council" as Adopted by the Tennessee Annual Conference at its Session September 4, 1952.

DIGEST OF DECISION

An Annual Conference may create a commission or "council" for the purpose of correlating and promoting the work of the various agencies of the conference but without authority over those boards, commissions and committees whose powers and duties are defined in certain paragraphs of the Discipline.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Tennessee Annual Conference of The Methodist Church in session at Pulaski, Tennessee, on September 4, 1952, adopted a proposal for the establishment of a "Conference Council" for the purpose of correlating and promoting the work of the various boards and agencies of the conference (see Journal of the Tennessee Annual Conference for 1952, pages 59, 60, 61). The proposal grew out of the experience of the Annual Conference with an inter-board council which had been in operation since the conference session of 1945.

At the session of the Tennessee Annual Conference in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, on September 4, 1953, the following request for a ruling was made in writing by three members of the conference—

> "The undersigned respectfully request your ruling as to the legality of the Conference Council as adopted by the Annual Conference meeting in Pulaski, Tennessee, on September 4, 1952, found on pages 59, 60, and 61 of the Journal of the Tennessee Conference of 1952.
> W. O. Largen
> Willard H. Blue
> Cullen T. Carter"

The ruling of the Bishop was as follows—

> "The Inter-Board Council or Conference Council is designed to function as a promotional and service agency for all the boards of the Annual Conference. It is composed of representatives ex-officio or duly elected by the various conference boards. It does not alter the structure or functioning of any of the conference boards as outlined in the Discipline or take away any of their prerogatives. It is, therefore, not contrary to the law of the Church."

Jurisdiction

The conditions of Paragraphs 43, 3 and 909 having been met, the ruling of Bishop Short is now properly before the Judicial Council.

Analysis

The "Conference Council" as adopted by the Tennessee Annual Conference at its session of September 4, 1952, might be alleged to be contrary to the law of the Church if (1), the conference by its action had exceeded its authority, or, (2) the "Conference Council" as adopted had been granted powers which contradicted the rights of the General Conference in its establishment of certain Annual Conference boards, commissions and committees with powers and duties as defined in certain paragraphs of the Discipline. The facts do not support such an allegation.

(1)—An Annual Conference certainly has the right to create its own agencies for the promotion of the work of the Church within its bounds. SECTION VII article 11 of the constitution (Paragraph 22) reads as follows—

> "The Annual Conference is the basic body in the church, and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all constitutional amendments, on the election of ministerial and lay delegates to the General and the Jurisdictional or Central Conferences, on all matters relating to the character and conference relations of its ministerial members, and on the ordination of ministers, and such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference under the Constitution, with the exception that the lay members may not vote on matters of ordination, character, and conference relations of ministers. It shall discharge such duties and exercise such powers as the General Conference under the constitution may determine."

There is ample evidence in the Discipline that among "such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference" is the right of the Annual Conference to govern its own procedures within the limits of the constitution. The first sentence of Paragraph 631 reads—

> "The Annual Conference may make rules to govern its own procedures; provided that no Annual Conference shall make any rule contrary to the Constitution or to the powers granted it by the General Conference."

Paragraph 630, 1 becomes specific concerning the right of an Annual Conference to create its own agencies for its work:

> "The Annual Conference at the first session following the General Conference or Jurisdictional or Central Conference shall appoint or elect such quadrennial boards, commissions, or committees as shall be ordered by the General Conference or the Jurisdictional or the Central Conference of which the said Annual Conference is a part, or by the Annual Conference itself, for the purpose of promoting the work of The Methodist Church within the bounds of the said Annual Conference. The powers and duties of said boards, commissions, and committees shall be prescribed by the conference authorizing them or as defined in certain paragraphs of this Discipline."

Certainly the "Conference Council" as adopted by the Tennessee Annual Conference is one of the "boards, commissions or committees" ordered by that Conference for the promotion of the work of The Methodist Church within its bounds.

(2)—The "Conference Council" as adopted by the Tennessee Annual Conference on September 4, 1952, was not granted powers which are in conflict with the powers and duties of Annual Conference Boards, commissions and committees established by the General Conference and defined in Paragraph 6, b of the plan of the "Conference Council" as adopted reads:

> "The Conference Council is a promoting and correlating agency of the boards and agencies of the Annual Conference and has no authority over the participating boards and agencies."

Under the plan, each Annual Conference Board or agency presents to the Annual Conference its suggested program for adoption. When adopted, those phases of the program which are to be promoted by the "Conference Council" are submitted to the "Council" for correlation and promotion. There seems to be no conflict here with the rights of the General Conference or with the powers and duties of Annual Conference agencies established by the General Conference.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that the "Conference Council" as adopted by the Tennessee Annual Conference on September 4, 1952, is not contrary to the law of the Church. Accordingly, the ruling of Bishop Short is hereby affirmed.

Decision No. 99

Re: Removal of Residence of Secretary of the Board of Church Extension of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, from Louisville to Philadelphia.

DIGEST OF DECISION

General legislation giving the Division of National Missions of the Board of Missions control over the work of the Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South (a Kentucky Corporation) did not give it the authority to change the residence of the secretary from Louisville, Kentucky, where it was fixed by basic law under the facts in this case. The General Conference is the only body which has power to make the change contemplated.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Board of Missions by petition seeks a Declaratory Decision under section 914. The petition sets out that the Board of Missions is an incorporated body and has control of all work formerly controlled and administered by the Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. (See Paragraph 1168 of 1952 Discipline.)

The Division of National Missions of the Board of Missions of The Methodist Church is charged, among other things, with the responsibility of the work of missions and church extension in the United States through a section of National Missions and a section of Church Extension, by Paragraphs 1213 and 1214 of 1952 Discipline.

Since Unification the church extension work has been administered through two offices: one at Louisville, Kentucky, serving the Southeastern and South Central Jurisdictions through the Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Church, South, a Kentucky Corporation; and the other serving the remaining Jurisdictions in the United States through the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a Pennsylvania Corporation.

The charter of the Kentucky Corporation, granted by the State of Kentucky in 1884 provides in Section V that the officers and managers can do all things necessary to the purpose of the corporation "not inconsistent with . . . the Constitution of the Board" (meaning the Board of Church Extension which the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, had organized about two years previously). In section VI of the Charter it is provided that the Constitution can be altered or amended by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. That power is now in the General Conference of The Methodist Church. This Constitution was adopted by the General Conference of The Methodist Church in 1944 and was amended by it in 1952.

Article III of this Constitution prescribes the duties of the secretary and provides that he shall reside where the Board (i.e., the Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the Kentucky Corporation) is located. The next Article IV states, "The Board shall be located in Louisville, Ky."

The Division of National Missions on January 20, 1954, took action to consolidate the work of the Kentucky and Pennsylvania Corporations by transferring the staff and work of the Louisville office to Philadelphia, but retaining an office in Louisville, where securities, corporate seal and records shall be kept. It further provided that the Secretary of the Kentucky Corporation, who is also Executive Secretary of the section of Church Extension of the Division of National Missions, shall reside in Philadelphia.

The question is raised, on which a declaratory decision is asked, whether the Board of Missions, through its Division of National Missions, which, by the Discipline, paragraph 1213 of 1952, has been given control of all the work formerly administered by the Kentucky Corporation, can provide that its Executive Secretary, who is also the Secretary of the Kentucky Corporation, shall reside in Philadelphia. It is contended that there is a conflict in legislation between said paragraphs 1168 and 1213 and in the said Constitution adopted in 1944.

Jurisdiction

This petition for a declaratory decision comes from a General Conference board or body, on matters relating to or affecting the work of such board or body and is therefore properly before the Judicial Council, under the provisions of Paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline.

Decision

The charter of the Kentucky Corporation having expressly provided that the officers and managers could not do anything inconsistent with the Constitution, which fixed the location of the Corporation in Louisville, and that the Secretary must reside there is the supreme law of that corporation. It is expressly provided in the Charter how the Constitution may be amended. General legislation giving the Division of National Missions control over the work of the Kentucky Corporation cannot be considered as an amendment to the said Constitution. Therefore, the petitioner does not have the authority to move the said Secretary's residence from Louisville to Philadelphia. That can be done only by specific action of the General Conference amending the Constitution.

Decision No. 100

Re: Request of Louisiana Annual Conference for a Declaratory Decision Interpreting the Provisions of the Discipline Relating to Licensing and Renewal of Licenses of Local Preachers.

DIGEST OF DECISION

Where there is no District Conference, the District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications has sole and final authority to license local preachers, and to renew their licenses. Where there is a District Conference the final authority for licensing local preachers and for renewing their licenses is vested in the District Conference.

In either case, for the securing of a license the applicant must comply with the provisions of Paragraph 304 of the Discipline.

In the matter of renewal of a license, where there is a District Conference, it is the duty of the District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications to examine the applicant and report to the District Conference whether in its opinion the "gifts, graces and usefulness" of the applicant warrant a renewal; but the final action for such renewal shall be taken by the District Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Judicial Council received from the Louisiana Annual Conference, South Central Jurisdiction, the following petition for declaratory decision:

> "1. Your petitioner is the Louisiana Annual Conference, South Central Jurisdiction, of The Methodist Church.
> "2. That your petitioner, the Louisiana Annual Conference, South Central Jurisdiction, of The Methodist Church, in session at Monroe, Louisiana, June

> 1-4, 1954, in accordance with Paragraph 914, 8, of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church respectfully petitions the Judicial Council to make a Declaratory Decision on Paragraph 675 2 (a), with reference to the following question: "Can a District Conference License a Local Preacher or Renew the License of a Local Preacher when the District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications does not recommend such action to said Conference?'"

Wherefore the petitioner requests a ruling and declaratory decision construing the meaning, application and effect of said paragraph.

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction under Paragraph 914, 8 to render the declaratory decision requested.

Analysis

The following is a full statement of all the law contained in the Discipline relating to the licensing and renewal of the license of a local preacher:

> "Paragraph 304—A person may be licensed to preach by the District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications (Par. 675). Unless the license is renewed, it expires after one year. (Pars. 319 and 329). To qualify for a license to preach, the person must take the following steps:
> "1. Receive the approval of the Quarterly Conference of the church in which he holds his church membership (Par. 146, 1).
> "2. Appear before and secure the written approval of the District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications.
> "3. Pass a satisfactory written examination in the studies prescribed for candidates for license to preach, and be examined in the subjects of doctrine and discipline (Par. 2043).
> "4. Agree to make a complete dedication of himself to the highest ideals of the Christian ministry and bear witness to the same by his abstinence from the use of tobacco and other indulgences which may injure his influence, consecrating himself to purity of life in body, in mind, and in spirit."

Paragraph 362. The duties of the District Superintendent are:

> "4. To issue licenses for local preachers and to renew them in accordance with the action of the District Conference or District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications (Par. 675)."

> "Paragraph 675. 1. There shall be a District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications, of which the district superintendent shall be chairman. The committee shall be composed of the district superintendent and five traveling preachers of the district, nominated annually by him, and approved by the Annual Conference. Interim vacancies may be filled by the chairman.
> "2. The duties of the committee shall be: > a) To examine each person who applies in writing for a license to preach, or for a renewal of such license. (Par. 304). Where there is evidence that his gifts, graces and usefulness warrant, it may, upon recommendation of the Quarterly Conference, of the church in which he is a member (Par. 146, 1), issue or renew his license to preach; provided, however, that where a District Conference exists, final action on such licensing shall be taken by the District Conference; and provided, further, that before the ballot for licensing a person to preach is taken he shall have agreed to the condition set forth in Par. 304 No.

> 4. The district superintendent shall furnish a certified list of the persons licensed to the secretary of the Annual Conference for insertion in the journal. (Par. 362, 10).
> b) To recommend to the Annual Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications suitable candidates for acceptance as approved supply pastors, for admission on trial, for local deacon's orders, for local elder's orders, and for restoration of credentials.
> "3. The vote of the committee in all such matters shall be by individual written ballot, and a three-fourths majority vote of the committee shall be required for license or approval.
> "4. The committee shall report its work to the District Conference for approval where such conference exists."

It will be noted that there are conflicts and ambiguities in these paragraphs. That can be easily explained by reason of the fact that in certain sections of the Church there are no District Conferences, and the law relating to the issuing and renewing of license to preach by the District Conference, where one exists, and by the District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications where there is no District Conference has been grouped together in such a manner as to confuse the two and render ambiguous the provisions relating to each separately. When these provisions are unscrambled, it appears that the most reasonable construction—and it is the opinion of the Judicial Council—that Paragraph 675, 2a in connection with the other provisions of the Discipline, quoted above, should be interpreted as follows:

First: Where there is no District Conference the District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications has sole and final authority to license or refuse to license a local preacher and to renew or refuse to renew such license; but where there is a District Conference the final authority for licensing a local preacher and for renewing his license is vested in the District Conference.

Second: In either case, for the securing of an original license as a local preacher the applicant must comply with all the provisions of Paragraph 304 of the Discipline.

Third: For a renewal of license it would not appear necessary that the applicant be examined again in the "subjects of doctrine and discipline" and be re-examined in the studies prescribed for candidates for license to preach. However, the question of "gifts and graces" and particularly the question of the "usefulness" of an applicant for renewal of license is one of importance. Paragraph 675, 2 (a) requires the District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications to make such an examination and determine whether or not to recommend renewal of such license.

Fourth: Subdivision 4 of Paragraph 675 specifically provides that where there is a District Conference "the Committee shall report its work to the District Conference for approval"; and sub. 2(a) of said Paragraph 675 specifically provides that "final action on such licensing" (including renewals) "shall be taken by the District Conference."

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that the specific question propounded should be divided and answered as follows:

1st. Can a District Conference license a local preacher when the District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications does not recommend such action to the Conference?

Answer: No.

2nd. Can a District Conference renew the license of a local preacher when the District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications does not recommend such action?

Answer: Yes.

In this connection attention is called again to the provisions of Paragraph 675 which, where a District Conference exists, require the District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications to report its work (not just a part of its work) to the District Conference and which provide that final action on the issuing or renewing of a license to preach "shall be taken by the District Conference." We are aware that at this point, there may seem to be some contradiction in answering the first question in the negative and the second question in the affirmative. The Discipline makes it clear, however, that the "final action" reserved to the District Conference by Paragraph 675 is, in the matter of the issuance of a license to preach, limited by Paragraph 304, 2 which requires the written approval of the District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications, but that, in the matter of the renewal of a license to preach, there is no such limitation, the District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications making recommendations but its approval not being made a specific requirement.

Decision No. 101

Re: Request of Western North Carolina Annual Conference for a Declaratory Decision on the Meaning of the Word "Consult" as Found in Paragraph 432(1) of the 1952 Discipline.

DIGEST OF DECISION

The word Consult in Paragraph 432 (1) means an exchange of ideas between the District Superintendent and the pastor concerning his appointment before the final announcement.

Simultaneous releasing of the appointments before the final reading does not constitute consultation as required in Paragraph 432 (1) of the 1952 Discipline.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the session of the Western North Carolina Conference held at High Point, North Carolina, on September 23-27, 1953, the following resolution was adopted:

> "RESOLUTION ASKING THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL FOR A DECLARATORY DECISION ON THE MEANING OF THE WORD CONSULT IN PARAGRAPH 432(1) OF THE DISCIPLINE
> We, the undersigned, move that the Western North Carolina Conference request the Judicial Council to:
> 1. Define the word "consult" as it appears in Paragraph 432(1) of the Discipline in the statement "and provided, further that before the final announcement of appointments is made the District Superintendents shall consult with the pastors. . . ."
> 2. Give a decision as to whether or not a simultaneous releasing of the appointments before the final reading constitutes consultation.
> 3. If the Judicial Council finds this request outside its jurisdiction, it is asked to request a definition from the General Conference.
> In the Western North Carolina Conference it has been the practice for the last several years to have a closed cabinet from the Saturday before the Annual Conference session begins until the following Friday afternoon when each District Superintendent informs the men in his District of their appointment except in most unusual cases.
> There seem to be a number of divergent views about what the Discipline means by consult and it is the feeling of this Conference that it should be given the same interpretation throughout Methodism.
> Signed: H. S. WILLIAMS
> G. N. DULIN
> D. L. STUBBS"

Jurisdiction

Paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline states:

> "When the General Conference shall have passed any act or Legislation that appears to be subject to more than one interpretation, or when a paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline seem to be of doubtful meaning or application, the Judicial Council, on petition as hereinafter provided, shall have jurisdiction to make a ruling in the nature of a Declaratory Decision as to the meaning, application and effect of such act, legislation, or paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline: and the decision of the Judicial Council thereon shall be as binding and effectual as a decision made by the Judicial Council on appeal under the law relating to appeals to the Judicial Council. "The following bodies in The Methodist Church are hereby authorized to make such petition to the Judicial Council for a Declaratory Decision. . . .
> (8) "Any Annual Conference, on matters relating to Annual Conferences or the work therein."

From the facts in connection with the foregoing resolution the Judicial Council is authorized to take jurisdiction in the matter presented by the Western North Carolina Annual Conference.

Analysis

The word "Consult" means to seek the opinion of or to confer or discuss with another. In Paragraph 432, 1 it means that the District Superintendent shall inform the pastor of the proposed appointment and discuss the matter with him with the view of ascertaining if there are any reasons why such appointment should not be made. Consultation means that there is an exchange of ideas even though they may not be in agreement. Consequently, in number two of the resolution presented by the Western North Carolina Conference, the simultaneous releasing of appointments of pastors to their charges before the final reading could not be regarded as consultation required by Paragraph 432, 1 of the 1952 Discipline. Evidently the phrase in question in Paragraph 432 was designed to encourage a more considerate procedure in appointing pastors to their charges.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that while the final authority in appointing preachers to their charges rests upon the presiding Bishop, it does not relieve the District Superintendent of the responsibility of consulting with the preacher in order to ascertain whether there are any reasons why the appointment should not be made. Therefore, the final reading of the appointment of preachers to their charges must be preceded by consultation of the District Superintendent with the preacher.

Decision No. 102

Re: Action of the Second Quarterly Conference of Inglenook First Methodist Church Held May 13, 1953, in Adding Three New Members to the Board of Trustees and Reorganizing the Board, as Presented on Appeal from the Decision of the District Superintendent Affirmed by the Presiding Bishop in Open Session of the North Alabama Annual Conference.

DIGEST OF DECISION

1. That a Second Quarterly Conference held on May 13, 1953, on a call announced to the congregation at its prayer service April 29, 1953, was regular and had the right to consider and act upon the matter of proceedings to recover from the ex-treasurer the Treasurer's books and records for the previous year: and that the courts will entertain suits between members of the Church as between members of society and other groups.
2. That the action of the Quarterly Conference of Inglenook First Methodist Church adding to its Board of Trustees three new members, at its Second Quarterly Conference, was null and void.
3. That the resolution of the Quarterly Conference authorizing the Trustees to employ attorneys without the fee being stipulated was within the authority of the Quarterly Conference and was legal.
4. That the meeting of the Board of Trustees not called by the Chairman and participated in by three illegally elected Trustees was illegal and void.

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction to review this decision of the Bishop made in open session of the Annual Conference. Par. 43, 3; Par. 909; and Decision No. 29 of the Judicial Council (1944).

Statement of Facts

The record in this case is too voluminous to reproduce here. Four members of the Quarterly Conference of Inglenook First Methodist Church, North Alabama Conference raised some questions as to the legality of the calling of a Quarterly Conference held on May 13, 1953, and the action of the Quarterly Conference in adding three new members to the Board of Trustees at such session of the Quarterly Conference. They filed a written request with G. M. Davenport, District Superintendent asking for a ruling both as to the legality of the call for the session of the Quarterly Conference and also as to the action of such session. Their request contained six points, which in brief may be stated as follows:

> 1. That under date of May 3, 1953, a notice was published in the bulletin of the Inglenook First Methodist Church, calling a special session of the Quarterly Conference on May 11, for the express purpose of authorizing legal proceedings against a member or members of the Church for the purpose of securing the records of the Ex-Treasurer; that if said session had been held it would have been illegal for lack of ten days' notice.
> That on May 11, 1953, announcement was made from the pulpit of the Church that the regular Second Quarterly Conference would be held on May 13; that no mention was made of postponement of the session called for May 11; that Paragraph 141 provides that a Quarterly Conference shall transact the business committed to it by the Discipline; and no authority is found in the Discipline giving the Quarterly Conference authority to institute legal proceedings against members of the Church.
> RULING OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT:
> To this point the District Superintendent in his decision replied that this was the regular Second Quarterly Conference held on May 13; that request for ruling was in error as to the time when same was called; that announcement was made to the congregation at its prayer service on April 29 that the Second Quarterly Conference would be held May 13, "thus giving ample time to fulfill any provision of the Discipline as to time"; that this Second Quarterly Conference was held at the discretion of the District Superintendent (Par. 140; that under the heading of "Is there any further business" (Question 29), the matter of proceedings to recover the Treasurer's book and records for the previous year was brought up; that it was proper business for the Quarterly Conference to consider and act upon; that the courts of the land will entertain suits between members of the Church and between members of society or any other groups.

2. That Inglenook First Methodist Church had operated for years with six trustees and was so operating when the May 13, 1953, session of its Quarterly Conference was held; that at this the Second Quarterly Conference three new Trustees were added making a total number of nine Trustees; That this was done on a report from the nominating committee signed by J. T. Aldridge as Chairman, whereas, Paragraph 145 specifically provides that the Pastor shall be chairman of the Nominating Committee; that this was illegal and void.

RULING OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT:

This was not the Fourth Quarterly Conference, and no vacancies were declared on the Board, hence the action of the Quarterly Conference in adding three new members to the Board of Trustees was invalid; (Par. 160) and that since the Pastor only can be chairman of the nominating Committee and this election was held on the nomination of a Committee of which a layman was registered as Chairman, the election was null and void. (Par. 160.)

3. That the authorization of the employment of a law firm to act as attorneys for the Church to institute legal proceedings as they saw fit, no specific fee being mentioned, committed the Church to a debt, the amount of which is unknown; that the commitment if made at all should have been made for a stipulated amount; and in the absence of such stipulation the legality of the proceedings was questioned.

RULING OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT:

"The Church was not committed to any debt of the Quarterly Conference and therefore the Church cannot be obligated to an indebtedness."

4. That on May 17, 1953, at the evening service, announcement was made from the pulpit of a call meeting of the Board of Trustees; that such meeting was held and the three newly elected members participated therein; that the then President of the Board of Trustees did not call this meeting, nor did he preside at said meeting; that a new president of the Board was elected and the existing president was ejected from the office of president.

RULING OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT:

"It is my opinion that with three members illegally elected on the Board that the meeting was illegal and that the calling of the meeting was also illegal, in that the Chairman did not call the meeting."

5. The fifth point is a general statement that in the opinion of the persons making the request for a decision "the actions being taken by the pastor and officers of the Inglenook First Methodist Church are not in harmony with the purpose and intent of the Discipline of The Methodist Church, and that such actions as are being taken are harmful to the Church and are not for its best interest." To this general statement the District Superintendent did not reply.

6. "It is our opinion that since the Pastor, Howard W. Raines, has totally disregarded the rules of the Discipline, and has assumed totalitarian policies, that he should be removed from the Pastorship of the Inglenook First Methodist Church, and that a Pastor well versed in the Discipline of The Methodist Church should be appointed to arbitrate and settle the matters involved in the disputes within the Inglenook First Methodist Church."

RULING OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT:

"The appeal with reference to the Pastor, Howard W. Raines, is out of order in that the appointment of a pastor is the province of the Bishop and his cabinet, and any request for removal or securing a preacher should go to the Bishop and his cabinet."

RULING OF THE BISHOP:

On appeal to the presiding Bishop of the next ensuing session of the North Alabama Annual Conference, Bishop Clare Purcell rendered the following decision:

> "The undersigned as presiding Bishop of the North Alabama Conference of The Methodist Church, in which Inglenook First Methodist Church is located, has read the record as submitted in this file." (The appeal file.) "He is of the opinion that the decision of the District Superintendent, Dr. G. M. Davenport, as herewith attached, is correct. It is, therefore affirmed."

Decision

Likewise, in the opinion of the Judicial Council the decision of the District Superintendent, Dr. G. M. Davenport, is in all things correct, except in his response to point 3. The Quarterly Conference had the authority to commit the Church for a reasonable attorney's fee, and such commitment was legal. Therefore, the decision of Bishop Clare Purcell made thereon at the 1953 session of the North Alabama Annual Conference is in all things affirmed, except as above modified.

Decision No. 103

Re: Decision of Bishop Clare Purcell in the 1953 Session of the North Alabama Annual Conference on Appeal from the Decision of the District Superintendent Made in the Quarterly Conference of Inglenook First Methodist Church, Upholding the Removal of Wm. Westbrook, Jr., as Steward and Trustee.

DIGEST OF DECISION

A Steward and Trustee having been Church Treasurer for years and having failed of re-election, and then withholding the Church records and account books from his successor and from the Commission on Finance and Auditing Committee, was acting at variance to his duties as a Steward and Trustee, and was subject to being removed from the offices of Steward and Trustee by the Quarterly Conference to which he was amenable without having been previously notified of such proposed action, and without charges being preferred against him under Paragraph 1001 to 1005 inclusive.

The Board of Stewards and the Board of Trustees are subject to the Quarterly Conference, and so are the individual Stewards and Trustees, and when a Steward or Trustee acts contrary to his duties as such the Quarterly Conference has the inherent right and authority to vacate his offices as Steward and Trustee.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The record in this case is too voluminous to insert in full in this statement. Apparently from the record, and the exhibits attached to the decision of the District Superintendent, William M. Westbrook, Jr., was Treasurer of the Inglenook First Methodist Church for a number of years until his successor was elected in 1952; that he refused to turn over to the incoming Treasurer and the Auditing Committee the books and records presumably in his possession and refused to have such books and records audited; that the Quarterly Conference ordered him to turn such books and records over to the Trustees or the Commission on Finance. As provided by Par. 139 of the Discipline the District Superintendent called a group Quarterly Conference including the Quarterly Conference of Inglenook First Methodist Church to be held at Fairmount on June 5, 1953. This was the third Quarterly Conference of the Inglenook Church, and due notice of same was given. At this Quarterly Conference the nominating Committee submitted the following written recommendation:

> "We, the Nominating Committee of Inglenook First Methodist Church, make the following recommendations to the Quarterly Conference held at Fairmount Methodist Church, June 5, 1953, at 7:30 P.M.
> "We do hereby recommend that William M. Westbrook, Jr., be relieved of the position of Steward and Trustee of the Inglenook First Methodist Church for the following reasons:
> 1. For refusing to turn church financial records over to the Church as requested by the Board of Stewards and the Quarterly Conference.
> 2. For not attending church, Stewards' meetings, Trustees' meetings, and for not contributing in any way toward the church program.
> "For authority we refer to the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church, page 76, Article 191.
> "We further recommend that A. J. Moore be named to fill the unexpired term of William M. Westbrook, Jr., on the Board of Trustees."

This recommendation was adopted and William M. Westbrook, Jr., was declared removed from the offices of Steward and Trustee and A. J. Moore was declared elected as his successor as Trustee.

The District Superintendent was called upon to render a decision on the legality of the action of the Quarterly Conference in removing William M. Westbrook, Jr., from the offices of Steward and Trustee.

G. M. Davenport, District Superintendent, ruled that the Quarterly Conference under such circumstances had the right to remove William M. Westbrook, Jr., from the offices of Steward and Trustee at a regular session of the Quarterly Conference without giving William M. Westbrook, Jr., any advance notice of any such action being contemplated.

William M. Westbrook, Jr., and his associates appealed to Bishop Clare Purcell, President of the next Session of the North Alabama Conference. Bishop Purcell in open Annual Conference session on October 2, 1953, ruled thereon as follows:

> "The undersigned as Presiding Bishop of the North Alabama Conference of The Methodist Church, in which Inglenook First Methodist Church is located, has read the record as submitted in this file." (The appeal file.)
> "He is of the opinion that the decision of the District Superintendent Dr. G. M. Davenport as herewith attached, is correct. It is, therefore, affirmed."

Jurisdiction

Dr. G. M. Davenport, District Superintendent, on request of interested parties, made a ruling on points of law in the Quarterly Conference of the Inglenook First Methodist Church under authority of Sec. 14, Paragraph 362. A written appeal was made from his decision to Bishop Clare Purcell, the President of the North Alabama Conference.

In open session of the Annual Conference Bishop Clare Purcell delivered in writing and read his decision on the appeal. No appeal was taken to the Judicial Council, as provided in Paragraph 1034.

The question arises: In the absence of such an appeal does the Judicial Council have jurisdiction to review this decision?

The Constitution, Paragraph 43, 3, gives the Judicial Council authority "to pass upon decisions of law made by bishops in Annual and District Conferences." The Judicial Council has interpreted this to mean that it is the duty of the Judicial Council to pass upon all such decisions regardless of their origin. Paragraph 1034 is statutory and not constitutional, therefore, if there is a conflict between it and the Constitution Paragraph 1034 must yield.

The Judicial Council determined this question in its decision No. 29, made December 4, 1944, in which case a Quarterly Conference appealed direct to the Judicial Council from a decision made by the District Superintendent in the Quarterly Conference. The Judicial Council held that under this Constitution and laws it had no jurisdiction to determine such an appeal, but added:

> "It may be stated that this does not mean that there is no remedy in a case of this character." . . .
> "Paragraph 362, subsection 14 makes it the duty of the District Superintendent 'To decide all questions of law which may arise in the business of the Quarterly Conference, SUBJECT TO AN APPEAL to the President of the next Annual Conference.' THUS A PROCEDURE IS PROVIDED WHEREBY ANY SUCH QUESTION CAN BE ACTED UPON BY THE PRESIDING BISHOP OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE, WHOSE RULING THEREON BECOMES SUBJECT TO REVIEW BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL."

Accordingly it is the decision of the Judicial Council that it has jurisdiction to review such decision made by Bishop Clare Purcell on appeal from the decision of the district superintendent made in the Quarterly Conference of Inglenook First Methodist Church.

Analysis

William M. Westbrook, Jr., based his appeal on the following points:

1. That he could be removed from the office of steward or trustee except on formal charges being preferred and his being given a hearing on same. In support of this point he cited Paragraphs 1001 to 1005, inclusive.
2. That under Paragraph 208 Stewards are elected annually; that there is no provision in the Discipline for removing a steward; that a new steward could be elected only in case of a vacancy, and that since he had not resigned there was no vacancy to fill.
3. That under Paragraph 160 trustees are elected at the final meeting of the Quarterly Conference; that there is no provision for the election of a trustee at any other time except to fill a vacancy as provided in Paragraph 161; that he had not resigned, and that there was no provision on the Discipline for the removal of a trustee except for the refusal to execute a legal document ordered executed by the Quarterly Conference as provided in Paragraph 191, and that no such refusal was involved in his case.

The District Superintendent answered the request for a ruling essentially as follows.

After stating the facts, as set out in the Statement above, he ruled as follows:

1. The Quarterly Conference was the regular Third Quarterly Conference; that notice of same had been duly given, and that it had the right to transact any business authorized or permitted by the Discipline.

2. That said Quarterly Conference did have authority to remove William M. Westbrook, Jr., as steward; that it did not have to prefer charges against him under Paragraphs 1001 and 1005 inclusive, and that it did not have to notify William Westbrook, Jr., of the proposed action by which he was removed as steward.

3. That under the circumstances said Quarterly Conference had authority to remove William M. Westbrook, Jr., as trustee; that it did not have to notify William M. Westbrook, Jr., of the proposed action by which he would be removed as trustee; that the failure to execute a legal document ordered by the Quarterly Conference, Par. 191, was not the only ground for such removal; that the Quarterly Conference under Section 5, Paragraph 157 has the right to remove a trustee for causes beyond that cause set out in Paragraph 191.

4. That formal charges did not have to be preferred against William M. Westbrook, Jr., as provided in Paragraphs 1001-1005 inclusive of the Discipline in order to remove him as Trustee.

In analyzing the points of appeal and decision of the district superintendent on which they are based, attention is here called to the following facts:

FIRST: Paragraph 143 provides that stewards shall be elected annually, but it does not prohibit the election of individual stewards at other sessions of the Quarterly Conference. The Quarterly Conference has the right to fill vacancies on the Board of Stewards at any session however the vacancy may have occurred. Paragraph 208.

SECOND: Paragraph 164 provides that the Board of Trustees "shall be subject to the directions of, and be responsible to, the Quarterly Conference." If the whole Board is subject to the direction of and responsible to the Quarterly Conference, each member is likewise subject to the direction of and responsible to the Quarterly Conference.

THIRD: Paragraph 206 provides that the Official Board of which each steward is a member "shall be responsible to the Quarterly Conference." Likewise that means that each member of the Board is so responsible.

FOURTH: Paragraph 157 provides that the Quarterly Conference shall be vested with power and authority as hereinafter set forth in connection with the property, both real and personal of said local church, namely:

> "5. To do any and all things necessary to exercise such other powers and duties relating to the property, real and personal, of the local Church concerned as may be committed to it by the Discipline."

The Church records and account books are property—personal property. The wilful withholding of same from his successor and from the Commission on Finance, the Auditing Committee and the trustees was wholly contrary to the duties of a steward, a trustee and an ex-official of the Church. In this connection it may be noted that William M. Westbrook, Jr., in his appeal, made no denial of the allegations set out in the report of the nominating Committee on which he was removed as steward and trustee. It would be an unwarranted infringement upon the prerogatives of the Quarterly Conference to which he was amenable that it could not discontinue his membership both as a steward and as a trustee.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that no notice to William M. Westbrook, Jr., of such proposed action by the Quarterly Conference was necessary; that no charges under Paragraphs 1001-1005 were necessary; that the regular Third Quarterly Conference had the inherent right and authority by written law and by implication to enforce its authority against an individual steward and trustee who was acting at variance to his duties as such steward and trustee; and in the exercise of that authority had the right to discontinue his membership on the Board of Stewards and vacate his office as a steward, and to discontinue his membership as a trustee, and vacate his office as a trustee; and under Paragraph 161, the Quarterly Conference had the right to fill the vacancy thus created. Accordingly the decision of Bishop Clare Purcell, on the appeal, affirming the decision of Dr. G. M. Davenport, District Superintendent, is in all things affirmed.

July 20, 1954.

Decision No. 104

Re: The Restoration of Credentials to a Minister Who Was Permitted to Withdraw from the Conference Under Charges.

DIGEST OF DECISION

After a lapse of two years since the charges were lodged by the Investigating Committee and when the application is accompanied by the proper recommendations and other requirements of the Discipline have been met, no trial is necessary on the old charges in order to have a preacher's credentials restored according to paragraph 993 of the 1952 Discipline.

The Annual Conference determines for itself whether there has been complete amendment of life on the part of the applicant and what committee shall present the recommendation to the Annual Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the meeting of the Council of Bishops held at Sea Island, Georgia, on Thursday, December 10, 1953, the Council voted to request a declaratory decision of the Judicial Council, covering the following questions submitted by Bishop Garber. This request was made after reading paragraphs 348, 991, 992, and 993, Discipline 1952.

> "A preacher in the North Carolina Conference withdrew under charges five years ago. The committee of investigation had already voted that a trial was necessary, but when the preacher withdrew and surrendered his credentials rather than stand trial, the records of the North Carolina Conference show that he withdrew under charges. Now this same preacher desires to be readmitted to the North Carolina Conference. The question is whether he must stand trial since the committee on investigation had voted that a trial was necessary five years ago or can he be readmitted under paragraph 993 of the Discipline of 1952 without standing trial under the old charges? In what manner can a conference be assured that there has been a complete amendment of life on the part of the former holder of the credentials? What committee of the conference should make such a recommendation to the conference."

Jurisdiction

Paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline states:

> "When the General Conference shall have passed any act of legislation that appears to be subject to more than one interpretation, or > when any paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline seem to be of doubtful meaning or application, the Judicial Council on petition as hereinafter provided, shall have jurisdiction to make a ruling in the nature of a declaratory decision as to the meaning, application and effect of such act, legislation, or paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline; and the decision of the Judicial Council thereon shall be as binding and effectual as a decision made by the Judicial Council on appeal under the law relating to appeals to the Judicial Council."

> "The following bodies in The Methodist Church are hereby authorized to make such petitions to the Judicial Council for a declaratory decision:
> (1) The Council of Bishops," etc.
> "The Judicial Council shall determine from the facts in connection with each such petition whether or not it has jurisdiction to hear and and determine the same."

From the above quotations it is apparent that on the questions submitted by Bishop Garber and referred to the Judicial Council by the Council of Bishops for a declaratory decision, the Judicial Council is authorized to take jurisdiction.

Analysis

In the case presented to us there are three questions raised for our consideration:

> 1. Can the former holder of credentials who has withdrawn under charges be readmitted to the Conference under Paragraph 993 of the Discipline of 1952 without standing trial under the old charges?
> 2. In what manner can the Conference "be assured that there has been a complete amendment of life on the part of the former holder of the credentials?"
> 3. What committee of the Conference should make such recommendations to the Conference?

In giving consideration to these questions there are several things that should be kept in mind.

> (1) Membership in the Annual Conference and ordination are not necessarily in the same category. Laymen are members of the Annual Conference being elected by their local church. Persons also are ordained local Deacons and Elders without becoming members of the Conference. Ministers who are located voluntarily according to Paragraph 375 or involuntarily according to Paragraph 377 retain their credentials but are no longer members of the Annual Conference.
> (2) Paragraph 993 of the 1952 Discipline deals only with the restoration of credentials and not with readmission to the Annual Conference.
> (3) The Investigating Committee of an Annual Conference is not a trial committee. Its function is to determine for the Annual Conference whether there are "reasonable grounds" for a trial. The accused is not guilty just because he surrenders his credentials. He may prefer to do so rather than go through the ordeal of a trial. Consequently, the Conference can hold a man guilty only when he confesses his guilt or is tried by the Conference Trial Committee and proven guilty. However, Paragraphs 952 and 953 of the 1952 Discipline state that

> "withdrawn under complaints" or "withdrawn under charges" means that "his status shall be the same as if he had been expelled." We take it that "status" refers to his relation to the Conference and has no reference to his character.

With these facts before us, we turn to Paragraph 993 of the 1952 Discipline concerning which a Declaratory Decision is requested. This paragraph states:

> "The Annual Conference to which credentials were surrendered as provided in Paragraphs 991-992 may restore the same at its discretion, if no charges or complaints against the minister have been lodged or were pending at the time of his surrender of said credentials; and if at the time of his request for the restoration of said credentials, he is a member in good standing in The Methodist Church and shall present from his Quarterly Conference a certificate of his character and a recommendation for the restoration of his credentials."

This means that if there are no charges or complaints lodged or pending, the Conference may restore his credentials at any time, providing he is a member in good standing of The Methodist Church and is recommended by his Quarterly Conference.

Then Paragraph 993 proceeds to state what can be done when there are charges or complaints lodged or pending as in the case of the brother from the North Carolina Conference.

> "In cases of surrender of credentials under situations involving the character of the minister, the said credentials may be restored only after a lapse of at least two years and upon the following conditions:
> (a) That the Conference holding the credentials shall be assured that there has been a complete amendment of life upon the part of the former holder of the credentials.
> (b) That he shall have been readmitted on trial into the Annual Conference from which he withdrew or admitted to another Annual Conference on trial or has been licensed as a local preacher by some District or Quarterly Conference.
> (c) That the Annual Conference which has admitted him on trial (if another than the one from which he withdrew) or the District or Quarterly Conference which licensed him shall present to the Annual Conference holding the credentials a certificate of his good character and a recommendation that his credentials be restored."

This paragraph makes it perfectly clear that the former holder of the credentials in order to have them restored must follow the steps taken by any layman who seeks ordination as a Methodist preacher. (Judicial Decision No. 18 in Re: C. M. Tyndal.) Of course when he surrendered his credentials he did not surrender his scholastic credits or his college and seminary degrees, if any. These credits and degrees may be accepted in lieu of the required courses of study, but a trial on the old charges is not required.

Question number two above as to how "the conference holding the credentials shall be assured that there has been a complete amendment of the life" is one which the Annual Conference itself must decide and cannot be answered by Judicial Decision. When admission on Trial is a prerequisite to the restoration of credentials, the procedure of admission, which involves a certificate of character from his Quarterly Conference and Examination by the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications as to his fitness for the ministry, would be a partial answer to the question. (Paragraph 993, b of 1952 Discipline.)

As to question number three above, viz: "What committee of the conference should make such recommendation to the conference?" Obviously "Such recommendation" refers to question number two concerning "complete amendment of life." Since the brother from the North Carolina Conference desires to be readmitted to the same Annual Conference to which he surrendered his credentials, and must be received on Trial by the same steps taken by any other candidate for the ministry, upon his admission on Trial he may have his credentials restored under paragraph 993 of the 1952 Discipline.

This paragraph does not specify the committee to which the question of restoration of credentials shall be referred. However, it would be appropriate for the Annual Conference to refer the case to the board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications for further recommendation, or could under its Disciplinary power to govern its own procedure, refer it to some other regular or specially appointed committee.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council, therefore, that in the case referred to the Judicial Council by the Council of Bishops:

> 1. The Brother from the North Carolina Conference cannot be readmitted to the Annual Conference under Paragraph 993, but only through the regular procedure prescribed for admission in Paragraph 321.
> In view of the fact that more than two years have elapsed since the charges were lodged by the Investigating Committee, and assuming that the minister comes to the Annual Conference with the proper recommendations as to his character and fitness for the ministry, no trial is necessary on the old charges presented by the Investigating Committee in order to have his credentials restored or to be readmitted to the Annual Conference.
> 2. The Annual Conference sets up its own standard of judgment on whether there has been a complete amendment of life on the part of the former holder of the Credentials.
> 3. The Annual Conference may receive the recommendation of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications which has examined the brother for his fitness for admission on Trial, or it may refer the case to some other regular or specially appointed committee.

Decision No. 105

Re: The Request of the Council of Bishops for a Declaratory Decision Concerning the Meaning of the Words "Upon Recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations" on the Question of Supernumerary Relation.

DIGEST OF DECISION

The words "upon recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations" do not mean that an Annual Conference cannot act contrary to its committee's recommendation if it wishes to do so.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the session of the New York East Annual Conference in May, 1953, the question was raised concerning the interpretation of Paragraph 365 of the 1952 Discipline. The first two sentences of this paragraph read:

> "A supernumerary minister is one who, because of impaired health or other equally sufficient reason, is temporarily unable to perform full work. This relation shall not be granted for more than five years in succession, except by two-thirds vote of the Conference, upon recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations, and a statement of the reason for such recommendation."

The question is, do the words "upon recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations" mean that the Conference cannot grant supernumerary relation for more than five years if its Committee on Conference Relations is unwilling to vote for such recommendation?

Jurisdiction

The Council of Bishops having asked the Judicial Council for a declaratory decision on the question submitted, the Judicial Council under Paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline has jurisdiction to grant the request.

Analysis

Paragraph 22, 11, of the Constitution reads as follows:

> "The Annual Conference is the basic body of the Church, and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all constitutional amendments, on the election of ministerial and lay delegates to the General and the Jurisdictional or Central Conferences, on all matters relating to the character and conference relations of its ministerial members, etc."

Paragraph 8, 3 of the Constitution reads as follows:

> "The General Conference shall have full legislative power over all matters distinctly connectional, and in the exercise of that authority shall have authority as follows:
> "3. To define and fix the powers and duties of the Annual Conferences,

This provision of the Constitution might be interpreted as in conflict with Paragraph 22 quoted above. That apparent conflict can be resolved easily when we consider the wording of paragraph 22 which says that the right to "vote" on the character and conference relations of its ministerial members is reserved to the Annual Conference. That right to vote being reserved to the Annual Conference the General Conference has no power or authority to abridge that right.

The General Conference in Paragraph 8, 3 of the 1952 Discipline can prescribe procedure to be followed leading up to the vote, or to be followed preceding the vote, but it cannot deny or abridge the right to vote regardless of the recommendation of the committee through which the matter is brought before the Annual Conference for action.

To say that the Annual Conference could not vote to extend the supernumerary relation for more than five years unless the committee on Conference Relations recommended such extension would be an abridgment of this right to vote on all such matters reserved to the Annual Conference in the Constitution. Its right to determine by vote all such matters cannot be delegated to any committee. The words "upon recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations" if valid at all, must be interpreted to mean that before a vote is taken on such extension of the Supernumerary relationship, the matter must be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for a recommendation either for or against such extension. The Annual Conference after receiving such recommendation may in its discretion vote just the opposite to such recommendation. Its right to vote cannot be abridged by the recommendation of the Committee.

The Committee on Conference Relations is elected by the Annual Conference as provided in Paragraph 638 of the 1952 Discipline. This committee, therefore, is the creature of the Conference. If the Conference cannot vote against the recommendation of a committee of its own election, if it wishes to do so, then it must be concluded that it, the Conference, is helplessly caught in its own web.

The Constitution of the Church having declared the Annual Conference to be the basic body in the Church does not, however, give the Annual Conference authority "for it to delegate its powers in such a manner as to deprive itself of that basic or ultimate power." (Judicial Council Decision No. 38.)

Decision

The answer to the question asked, therefore, is: the words "upon recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations" do not mean that the Conference cannot grant supernumerary relation for more than five years if it wishes to do so in spite of the contrary recommendation of its committee. The right to vote "on all matters relating to the character and conference relations of its ministerial members" is specifically reserved to the Annual Conference by the Constitution and cannot be abridged by any act of the General Conference. (Paragraph 22, 1952 Discipline.)

Decision No. 106

Re: Request of Council on World Service and Finance for Declaratory Decision on Pension for Resigned Bishop or His Widow.

DIGEST OF DECISION

There is no legislation in the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church dealing with pension for a resigned Bishop or his widow and therefore no basis for a declaratory decision on such legislation by the Judicial Council as requested by the Executive Committee of the Council on World Service and Finance. The Judicial Council therefore declines to accept jurisdiction in this instance.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On January 5, 1953, the Executive Committee of the Council on World Service and Finance took the following action:

> "The Committee reviewed the data concerning the claim of Mrs. G. R. Grose for a pension. G. B. McKibbin moved that the matter be referred to the Judicial Council for an advisory opinion or a declaratory decision. R. F. Curl seconded, and it was carried."

Mrs. G. R. Grose is the widow of Dr. George R. Grose who was elected to the Episcopacy by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1924. He was assigned to the Peking Area in China and reassigned to the same Area in 1928. In 1929, he was released from his duties as a Bishop, and in 1932 his resignation from that office was accepted. The following notation appears in the Journal of the General Conference of 1932: (page 542):

> "Your Committee, having made careful inquiry into the matters referred to it, respectfully recommends that the resignation of George R. Grose from the office of General Superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal Church be accepted, to take effect as of May 18, 1932. Adopted May 24, 1932."

Following this resignation no action was taken by any church body to provide a pension for G. R. Grose although he continued as a retired minister, listed as such in the North Indiana Conference Minutes from 1933 until his death in 1953. He relinquished pension claims on the Conference Annuity Funds for these years. The North Indiana Conference Minutes for 1953 (p. 493) contains a memoir recognizing his membership in that Conference.

Mrs. Grose receives a widow's pension for the years of her husband's services in the New England, the Baltimore and the North Indiana Conferences prior to his election as a Bishop in 1924.

Decision

The Judicial Council in Paragraph 914 has authority to make "a declaratory decision as to the meaning, application, and effect" of acts or legislation enacted by the General Conference when these are "subject to more than one interpretation" or may be of "doubtful meaning, or application." There is, however, no legislation whatever in the Discipline dealing with pension provisions for a resigned Bishop or his widow, and therefore no basis for a declaratory decision by the Judicial Council. For the Council to render a decision would be for it to take legislative action and this is not within the authority of this body. Thus, the Judicial Council must decline to make a declaratory decision as requested by the Executive Committee of the Council on World Service and Finance.

Decision No. 107

Re: Request of Division of National Missions of the Board of Missions for a Declaratory Decision on the Meaning of the Words "or Sub-Divisions" in Paragraph 174 of Discipline of 1952.

DIGEST OF DECISION

The words "or sub-divisions" as they appear in the second line of Paragraph 174 of the Discipline of 1952 mean sub-divisions of governmental agencies and not sub-divisions of private real estate projects.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Division of National Missions in making a donation grant of $2,500 to the St. Luke's Methodist Church in San Angelo, Texas, specified that one of the conditions of the grant was that the title be vested in the trustees of the said church in fee simple with the usual "trust clause" specified in Paragraph 174 of the Discipline of 1952 included.

St. Luke's Church is to receive, without cost, a deed to certain property from the developer of a residential real estate subdivision who wishes to insert a reversion clause and omit the "trust clause" from the deed.

It is the claim of the developer that the words "or sub-divisions" in the second line of Paragraph 174 of the Discipline of 1952 permit such an arrangement. The Division of National Missions contends that the words "or sub-divisions" refer to governmental agencies and that no other exceptions to the procedure of requiring the "trust clause" can be made.

The Judicial Council is asked for a declaratory decision interpreting the words "or sub-divisions" in Paragraph 174.

Jurisdiction

Paragraph 914 of the Discipline of 1952 provides that,

> "When the General Conference shall have passed any act or legislation that appears to be subject to more than one interpretation, or when any paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline seem to be of doubtful meaning, or application, the Judicial Council, on petition as herein> after provided, shall have jurisdiction to make a ruling in the nature of a declaratory decision as to the meaning, application, and effect of such act, legislation, or paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline."

> . . . "The following bodies in The Methodist Church are authorized to make such petitions to the Judicial Council for declaratory decisions: . . . (2) any General Conference board or body, on matters relating to or affecting the work of such board or body."

Since the Division of National Missions of the Board of Missions is a General Conference body and makes a request for a declaratory decision on a matter relating to and affecting its work, it is properly within the jurisdiction of the Judicial Council to render such a decision.

Analysis

The purpose of Paragraph 174 of the Discipline of 1952 requiring that a trust clause be inserted in all written instruments of conveyance by which premises are held or acquired for use as a place of divine worship for members of The Methodist Church or other church activities is to protect the interests of The Methodist Church in the property and its financial investment therein. The only exception is made with respect to governmental agencies or sub-divisions which are unable to supply a deed without a reversion clause and with a trust clause included. To interpret the words "or sub-divisions" as referring to real estate developments so broadens the exception as to abrogate the general principle and defeat the purpose of this paragraph.

Furthermore, if "sub-divisions" referred to other than governmental agencies one would expect some such word as "from" to precede the word "sub-division." While the language would be clarified had it been made to read "or sub-divisions thereof," it is still to be interpreted to mean that the word "governmental" modifies both "agencies" and "sub-divisions." Were that not the case and the word "sub-division" interpreted as a portion of a real estate development, the further question would arise as to whether a sub-division of real estate can convey property. A sub-division refers to a plot of ground and not to a person or agency which has the power to convey real estate.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council, therefore, that the words "or sub-divisions" found in the second line of Paragraph 174 of the Discipline of 1952 mean sub-divisions of governmental agencies, and not sub-divisions of private real estate projects.

Decision No. 108

Re: Request of the Council of Bishops Asking if An Annual Conference Incorporated in Accordance with Paragraph 625 of the Discipline Is Compelled to Incorporate Its Board of Trustees in Accordance with Paragraph 709 of the Discipline.

DIGEST OF DECISION

If the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference are the directors of the incorporated Annual Conference and are performing the same functions and duties as those assigned to an incorporated Board of Trustees in Paragraph 709, that constitutes a substantial compliance with the provisions of Paragraph 709, and the separate incorporation of the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference is not necessary.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Bishop Frederick B. Newell, presiding Bishop of the Newark Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, sent to the Council of Bishops the following communication:

> "The following question has been raised by the Newark Annual Conference and is presented herewith for the consideration of the Council of Bishops at its Annual Meeting to be held in New York, April 29-30, 1954.
> "Statement of fact
> 1. In accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 625 of the 1952 Discipline which reads as follows:
> 'Annual Conferences may become severally bodies corporate wherever practicable, under the law of the countries, states, and territories within whose bounds they are located.'
> The Newark Annual Conference is a body corporate in the state of New Jersey.
> 2. At the 1953 session of the Newark Annual Conference when the bishop was momentarily out of the chair, the following resolution was adopted by the Conference:
> 'That the Trustees of the Newark Annual Conference be and hereby are authorized to effect the incorporation of the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference in conformity with Paragraph 709, Section 1, page 186, Discipline 1952.'
> 3. The authorization for '2' above for the Trustees of the Conference to incorporate has not been fulfilled, and the bishop has requested that it not be fufilled until the Council of Bishops gives its opinion or the Judicial Council gives a declaratory decision.
> "The question
> Is Paragraph 709 which states, 'Each Annual Conference shall have an incorporated Board of Trustees,' compulsory in those Annual Conferences where under Paragraph 625 a corporation has previously been formed under the permissive authorization, 'Annual Conferences may become severally bodies corporate wherever practicable.' "

Upon receipt of this communication the Council of Bishops referred same to its Committee on Law and Administration. This Committee reported back to the Bishops as follows:

> "With reference to the request of Bishop Newell, in the case of the Newark Annual Conference, inquiring whether or not an incorporated Annual Conference, under the provisions of Paragraph 625 of the 1952 Discipline, is compelled under Paragraph 709 also to have an incorporated Board of Trustees, it is our opinion that the two paragraphs are in conflict; and we therefore recommend that the Council of Bishops request the Judicial Council to render a declaratory decision in this matter."

This report was adopted by the Council of Bishops and the file on same was forwarded by the Secretary of the Council of Bishops to the Secretary of the Judicial Council.

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction in this matter under sub. (1), Paragraph 914.

Analysis

Paragraph 625 provides that "Annual Conference may become severally bodies corporate, wherever practicable, under the law of the countries, states and territories within whose bounds they are located."

Paragraph 709 provides that "each Annual Conference shall have an incorporated Board of Trustees," with certain powers to administer the funds and properties of the Annual Conference.

The essential purpose of Paragraph 709 is to provide a responsible administrative corporate agency to hold, preserve, manage and care for the properties and funds of the Annual Conference. It is hardly conceivable that the General Conference by these two provisions contemplated the possibility of having two separate corporations within an Annual Conference charged with similar responsibility.

Decision

If the Trustees of the present incorporated Newark Conference are the Directors or constitute the governing Board of such corporation and perform the functions that an incorporated Board of Trustees under Paragraph 709 would perform, the present corporation, in the opinion of the Judicial Council, constitutes a substantial compliance with the provisions of Paragraph 709, and a separate incorporation of the Board of Trustees of the Conference is not necessary.

Decision No. 109

Re: Instruction of Lay and Reserve Members of an Annual Conference by an Official Board or a Quarterly Conference.

DIGEST OF DECISION

An official Board or a quarterly conference has no authority in the law of The Methodist Church to order or instruct lay or reserve members to vote in any prescribed manner on issues expected to come before an Annual Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

A request for an episcopal decision was made at the 1954 session of the Central Texas Annual Conference as follows:

> "Whereas, the Official Board of First Methodist Church, Coleman, Texas, in regular session on June 7, 1954, did adopt by majority vote a motion that the lay member and reserve lay members of the Annual Conference from that church be ordered and instructed to vote against any motion, report, or resolution that might be presented to the Annual Conference favoring any relaxation of the practice of racial segregation in Methodist institutions as it existed at the time that the Supreme Court of the United States rendered its recent decision concerning racial segregation in public schools.
> "Therefore, a formal request is made for an episcopal decision to the following question, 'Does an official board of a Methodist Church, or a quarterly conference, have the authority to order and instruct its lay member or reserve lay members of the Annual Conference to vote in any specified manner on matters coming before the Annual Conference?' "

Bishop William C. Martin, presiding, gave his written decision as follows:

> "In conformity with the generally accepted principle that delegated members of a church council shall be free to make decisions in the light of facts and discussions concerning issues that are considered by such body, the Discipline of The Methodist Church does not authorize an official board or a quarterly conference 'to order and instruct its lay member or reserve lay members of the annual conference to vote in any specified manner on matters coming before the annual conference.' "

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council is authorized to take jurisdiction under Paragraph 909 of the 1952 Discipline.

Decision

The Judicial Council affirms the action of the bishop as presented above and adopts his statement as the decision of the Council.

Decision No. 110

Re: Request of New England Southern Conference for a Declaratory Decision as to the Meaning, Application and Effect of Paragraphs 375 and 309 of Discipline of 1952 Referring to Termination of Annual Conference Membership by Voluntary Location.

DIGEST OF DECISION

A minister who locates voluntarily retains his relationship as a local preacher in the Quarterly Conference where he resides. His license is not subject to renewal annually. He is held amenable for his conduct and the continuance of his ordination rights to the Annual Conference in which his Quarterly Conference membership is held. He continues as a local preacher in the quarterly Conference until such time as he voluntarily surrenders his credentials or is deprived of such by due process of trial.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Judicial Council received the following petition for a declaratory decision from the New England Southern Conference:

> "The New England Southern Conference, in session in Brockton, Mass. June 5, 1954, by unanimous vote, petitions the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, in compliance with Paragraph 914, 8 Discipline of 1952, to make a ruling, in the nature of a declaratory decision, as to the meaning, application and effect of Sec. VIII, Termination of Annual Conference Membership Paragraph 375, By Voluntary Location (also Paragraph 309) with respect to the following particulars:
> "It is understood that a member of an Annual Conference who locates at his own request thereupon becomes a local preacher with such orders as he has previously received.
> "QUESTION I. In the case of a member of an Annual Conference who has located at his own request is the continuance of his status as a local preacher dependent upon
> (a) The renewal annually of a license to preach by quarterly, district or Annual Conference action?
> (b) Is it dependent upon membership in a local Methodist Church and Quarterly Conference where he resides?
> QUESTION II. In the case of a member of an Annual Conference who has located at his own request is the continuance of his status as a deacon or elder dependent upon his membership in a Methodist Church and a Quarterly Conference where he resides?
> QUESTION III. If it is adjudged that the ministerial status of a member of an Annual Conference who has located at his own request is dependent upon membership in a Methodist Church and quarterly conference where he resides, after what lapse of time following location would one cease to have standing as a local preacher and as a deacon and/or elder, if no connection with a Methodist Church or quarterly conference has been established?

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction under Paragraph 914, 8 to render the declaratory decision requested.

Analysis

In the request of the New England Southern Conference cited above, three specific questions are asked:

> (1) In the case of a member of an Annual Conference who has located at his own request, is the continuance of his status as a local preacher dependent upon
> (a) The renewal annually of a license to preach by Quarterly District or Annual Conference action?

(b) Is it dependent upon membership in a local Methodist Church and Quarterly Conference where he resides?

The answer to (a) is NO. The ordination of a local preacher makes unnecessary the annual renewal of his license.

The answer to (b) is YES. Paragraph 310 of the 1952 Discipline provides that "whenever local preachers, ordained or unordained shall sever their relation with The Methodist Church in any way whatsoever, they shall deposit their credentials with the proper authorities."

QUESTION II. In the case of a member of an Annual Conference who has located at his own request is the continuance of his status as a deacon or elder dependent upon his membership in a Methodist Church and a Quarterly Conference where he resides?

The answer is YES. For the same reason as in (b) above see Paragraph 310.

QUESTION III. If it is adjudged that the ministerial status of a member of an annual conference who has located at his own request is dependent upon membership in a Methodist Church and Quarterly Conference where he resides, after what lapse of time following location would one cease to have standing as a local preacher and as a deacon and/or elder, if no connection with a Methodist Church or Quarterly Conference has been established.

The answer is that a minister who has located, automatically becomes a member of the Quarterly Conference where he resides at the time of his location, Paragraph 309. He continues as a local preacher in that quarterly conference or in such other to which he may be transferred (Par. 306), until such time as he voluntarily surrenders his credentials or is deprived of them through due process of trial.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council, therefore, that a minister who is located voluntarily is not required to have his license renewed annually. His status as a local preacher and as a deacon and elder is dependent upon his membership in The Methodist Church and Quarterly Conference where he resides. A minister when located, automatically becomes a member of The Methodist Church and Quarterly Conference where he resides. He continues as a local preacher in that Methodist Church and Quarterly Conference or in such other to which he may be transferred until such time as he voluntarily surrenders his credentials or is deprived of them by due process of a trial.

Decision No. 111

Re: Answer of a Candidate for the Traveling Ministry to Question as to His Abstinence from the Use of Tobacco.

DIGEST OF DECISION

The answer of a candidate for the traveling ministry to the question set out in Paragraph 321, 4 of the 1952 Discipline as to abstinence from the use of tobacco, in order to be satisfactory must be in the affirmative and without qualification.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

This matter comes before the Judicial Council on the following action of the North-East Ohio Conference taken on June 27, 1953:

> "The North-East Ohio Conference requests the Judicial Council to interpret what constitutes a "satisfactory written answer" to (4) in Paragraph 321 "are you willing to make a complete dedication of yourself to the highest ideals of the Christian ministry and bear witness to the same by your abstinence from the use of tobacco and other indulgences which may injure your influence, consecrating yourself to purity of life in body, in mind and in spirit?" e. g., is it "satisfactory" for a candidate to answer that he is willing to make a complete dedication of himself to the highest ideals of Christian ministry and to bear witness to the same by his abstinence from indulgences which may injure his influence, consecrating himself to purity of life in body, in mind, and in spirit, but that he objects to the singling out of tobacco as the only specific illustration of these "indulgences."

Jurisdiction

The above request of the North-East Ohio Conference is a request for a declaratory decision and the Judicial Council has jurisdiction under paragraph 914, 8 of the 1952 Discipline.

Analysis

The candidate must deposit with the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications in duplicate "satisfactory written answers" to certain questions, among which is that which has a clause pertaining to abstinence from the use of tobacco. The Discipline does not state to whom the answer must be satisfactory. Surely the candidate is not meant. If he were there might be as many different answers as candidates. Nor can the particular Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications be meant. This would give rise to as many different answers as there are conferences. This was a matter of General Conference concern and legislation and of uniform application. Those present at the 1952 General Conference, when a minority committee report on this subject was substituted and adopted for the majority report, could not have any doubt as to the intent of the General Conference. That intent was that the answer of the candidate should be in the affirmative without equivocation or reservation, either mental or expressed. Attention is further directed to Paragraph 675, 2a of the 1952 Discipline providing that before the ballot for licensing a person to preach is taken he shall have agreed to the conditions set forth in Paragraph 304, 4, which are the same as Paragraph 321, 4. The application of the requirement of abstinence from the use of tobacco is not different in the case of an applicant for a license to preach than in the case of a candidate for the traveling ministry.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that a satisfactory written answer to said Paragraph 321, 4 of the 1952 Discipline is an unequivocal affirmative answer to the disciplinary question as stated. The suggested answer on which the opinion is requested is not satisfactory.

INDEX OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE MINISTERIAL MEMBERS

The following is a list of the Conference Members, including Probationers, whose present relation to the Church is recorded in this volume. The figure before each name represents the year in which the man was received into Full Membership. Where the figure is omitted there is a question about the exact year and the matter is being investigated. The star (★) indicates that the name will not appear in the General Minutes next year, the man having been removed by death, discontinuance, location, withdrawal, or expulsion. Boldface type indicates that the preacher is retired. The superior figure in the page number is the column in which the name appears. The editor of the General Minutes will appreciate information which will increase the completeness and accuracy of this record. Address him, The Statistical Office, 740 Rush St., Chicago 11, Ill.
